

Fuel Technician – National

JOB DESCRIPTION – FUEL TECHNICIAN

---

TITLE:	Fuel Technician
REPORTS TO:	The CSC Project Manager & General Manager
PLACE OF WORK:	Your place of work will be fluid, nationwide, working away from home. We currently have our operations depots in Exeter & Dudley and Head Office in Helston.

Your role will encompass but will not be limited to the following:

- Fuel sampling and analysis
- Fuel cleaning to specification
- Site surveys and customer visits
- Continual improvement and procedures
- Ongoing training regarding procedures and equipment
- Writing of fuel reports
- Improvement of fuel reports
- Creating proactive workflow
- Maintaining REDS customer relationships
- Assistance in developing REDS services to support its expanding service provision to varying industries and management of the development of those service offerings
- Creation of your own personal career development of your training to suit and match REDS service provisions within the decommissioning, tank maintenance and response industries

REDS Group will supply you with the following:

- Company laptop, iPad and mobile phone as required for your job role
- Company PPE, uniform and personal specialist PPE
- Company vehicle, a fully equipped REDS Vehicle with fuel cards
- Relevant training to ensure you can meet our clients' requirements if required

A security vetting check will be undertaken to comply with our nationwide sensitive properties.

Fuel Technician – National

PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS

---

- Honest, open, driven and committed
- High level of energy and drive
- Resilient – is not afraid of a challenge
- To have good judgement and able to build collaborative relationships quickly and effectively
- Team player with willingness to help others and go above and beyond their formal role.

Name:

Signed by Employee:

Date: